

Nomination Form - Cover Page

The Greater Cedar Valley USBC is proud to recognize GCV USBC bowlers for their contributions to the sport of bowling in our association. There are five awards available each season. A description of each award is outlined below. To be eligible to be nominated for an award, the nominee should be a current member of the GCV USBC or recognized as a Volunteer. Nominees can be in youth or adult categories.

Dedication Award:

This award recognizes a GCV USBC member who has dedicated time and effort to improving their bowling game. This includes practice, participating in leagues and competing in tournaments and overall going above and beyond.

Good Sportsmanship Award:

This award honors a GCV USBC member who has promoted the sport of bowling by their actions and not necessarily by their bowling ability. They treat others with respect and truly make bowling fun when they are around.

Return to Bowling Award:

This award recognizes a GCV USBC member who has returned to bowling after a significant amount of time away from the sport. Their return may be highlighted by practice, league and/or tournament participation.

Top Recruiter Award:

This award recognizes a GCV USBC member who has gone above and beyond to recruit bowlers into the sport of bowling. This could include recruiting new bowlers for league or for tournament participation or a combination of both.

Volunteer of the Year Award:

This award recognizes a GCV USBC member who has made an impressive contribution to bowling in the Greater Cedar Valley.

Nomination forms should be submitted to the Association Manager by April 1. Please see additional pages for specific information needed for each award.
