1. Why do you want to serve as a Youth Ambassador to the Greater Cedar Valley USBC Youth Committee?

2. Tell us about your bowling achievements and accomplishments.

3. How many years have you been bowling?

Program Information

Applicants must be at least 14 years old and not older than 18 years old as of August 1st of the current bowling season.

Youth Ambassadors participate as non-voting members of the GCV USBC Youth Committee, attending meetings, providing input on awards, youth tournaments, spring banquet, and other items that impact the youth program.

Youth committee meetings typically occur in November, December, January, March, and April. The date and time varies, and required attendees will be given a minimum of two weeks' notice prior to the next meeting. You must provide your own transportation to and from these meetings.

Youth Ambassadors serve a one-year term, ending July 31 of the current bowling season. Youth may apply for consideration each year.

Up to five Youth Ambassadors may be selected annually. All applicants will be notified of selections by October 10, 2025.
